Mr. Morton is the son of Rev. Daniel Oliver and Lucretia (Parsons) Morton, and his descent is traced in a direct line to George Morton, a Yorkshire (Eng.) merchant, who was the financial agent of the Mayflower Pilgrims in 1620, and coming to Massachusetts in the ship Anne in 1623, settled at Middleboro, Mass.

Mr. Morton began his business career as clerk in a country store at Enfield, Mass., and a little later was put in charge of a store at Hanover, N. Y. In 1849, he entered the store of James M. Beebe & Co. of Boston, and the following year was taken into partnership. In 1854, he and George B. Grinnell formed the Dry Goods Commission House of Morton & Grinnell. In 1863, he founded the banking house of L. P. Morton & Co., which soon after became Morton, Bliss & Co. and continued till 1899, when it was succeeded by the Morton Trust Co., with Mr. Morton as President.

In 1878 and 1880, he was elected to Congress. When Garfield became President he was offered the offices of Secretary of State, Secretary of the Navy and minister to France. He chose the latter office and filled it with signal ability. He drove the first rivet in the Bartholdi Statue of Liberty and later accepted the statue in the name of his country, July 4, 1884. In 1888, he was elected Vice-President of the United States and filled the position with conspicuous ability. In 1894, he was elected Governor of the State of New York, and won much praise for his career in that position, as he had in all previous positions.

Besides being President of the Morton Trust Co. and the Fifth Avenue Trust Co., Mr. Morton is a Director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, the Guaranty Trust Co., the Home Insurance Co. and the Washington Life Insurance Co.; President of the Metropolitan Club; member of the Union League, Union Lawyers and Republican Clubs; President of the New York Zoological Society; and a member of the New England Society, the Sons of the American Revolution, the Mayflower Descendants, etc.

During the great famine in Ireland in 1879 he gave one-quarter of the Constellation's cargo of food and supplies. Among his benevolences were the donation of land for a public park at Newport, R. I.; the land for an Art Gallery at Dartmouth College; $10,000 to found a professorship at Middlebury College; $600,000 to the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in memory of his daughter Lena, and also in her memory a Memorial Library at Rhinecliff, N. 4888. JOSEPH FRANCIS<sup>s</sup> SANFORD (same descent as 4885) b. July 10, 1811, Prospect, Ct.; d. Jan. 4, 1902, Council Bluffs, Ia.; m. Jan. 28, 1838, Ruthama Parker, b. Apr. 6, 1807, N. Y. State; d. Oct. 19, 1882, LaValle, Wis.

Mr. Sanford was a pioneer in Rockford, Ill., Madison and Baraboo, Wis. He was engaged in mercantile and real estate business for many years. About 1849, he opened a store in Baraboo, Wis., and a few years later built a three-story brick store and a large grist mill. In 1857, he moved to Dalton to educate his son George, and in 1861 to LaValle, Wis., where he owned the saw mills and water power and large tracts of land. He founded the village of LaValle, rebuilt the saw mills, and built the grist mills and a stave and broom handle factory. He was a postmaster several years and town treasurer several terms.

They had two children born in Byron, Ill.

Starting out in life for himself, Mr. Sanford went into middle Pennsylvania, where he taught school and preached among the Indians for a time, then moved on to Michigan. Here he became a Methodist circuit rider, traveling under presiding elders, in a country, so new and unbroken that the scream of the panther and snarl of the wild cat were not unfamiliar sounds. With failing voice and approaching deafness he was obliged to settle, in 1841, at Middletown, Wis., where he built the first house, and his son David was the first white child born in the township. Here he lived for nearly fifty years, struggling in a hand-to-hand conflict with the forces of nature, until the wilderness blossomed as the rose.

Mr. Sanford was an excellent business man, affectionate, sympathetic and generous to a fault in his impulses, and deeply pious and conscientious in his daily walk. He became totally deaf in his prime, but, while sensitiveness to his affliction led him to a somewhat secluded life, his disposition did not change, and he was as merry and fun-loving as a boy.

They had ten children.

d. July 18, 1855, Ashland, Mich.; m. (2) July 7, 1858, Ambrosia Josephine Peck. Res., Muskegon, Mich.

The early days of Mr. Sanford's life were spent upon the homestead farm in Marion, N. Y., and he received his education in the country school, Geneva Lyceum and Lima Seminary. Following this he was employed in a drug store in Geneva, N. Y., until 1844, when with his wife he moved to the comparatively new and rapidly developing West. A large part of the journey was made by canal and stage. He visited St. Louis and Chicago, which had but one brick structure at that time. Locating at Grand Rapids, Mich., he returned East and purchased a stock of goods in New York City, which was shipped in October by canal to Buffalo, by sail from there to Grand Haven, Mich., and then by river steamer to Grand Rapids, arriving in the following spring. He thus established the first drug store in Grand Rapids, where he was County Clerk for some time.

Learning of the advantages for lumbering on the Muskegon River, he gave up the drug business in 1848 and began his career as a lumberman, which he continued until age and infirmity compelled his retirement. His first location was in the woods of the Muskegon River at a place afterward named Bridgeton. Here he built a comfortable log home and established friendly relations with the neighboring Indians. Here also his wife passed to the Home beyond, and her remains were laid beneath an old oak on the river bank. Three years later he moved to Muskegon and carried on his lumbering operations on the Muskegon, Flat and White rivers, also for a time manufacturing shingles on the bayou of the Muskegon River which bears his name.

From 1858-60 he held the office of County Sheriff, acquiring state-wide fame as the "walking sheriff," five miles an hour for an entire day being an easy walk for him, and he never, in the performance of his duties, would consent to ride. At about the close of the Civil War he acquired a tract of land several hundred acres in extent, on the outskirts of the village, which is now one of the chief residential sections of a city of 25,000 inhabitants. He planted the first extensive fruit orchard in that region, which has since become famous for its fruits.

Mr. Sanford was always deeply interested in the welfare of his home city, a liberal contributor to all improvements, a member of the school board, and for many years a prominent factor in the city's growth. One of the principal streets bears his name, and the town of Sanford, Mich., was named in his honor.

He had four children by first and four by second marriage, the last four born in Muskegon, Mich.

Mr. Sanford received his education in the Muskegon Schools and the Collegiate Institute of Rev. Joseph King at Fort Edward, N. Y., from which he was graduated in June, 1868. The following winter he returned to Muskegon and began publishing the Muskegon Enterprise, a democratic paper, which soon sprang into popularity. It was printed on a "Washington Hand Press" and from old type. In about a year, the building in which the office was located burned and a new one was built, and the first cylinder power press on the east shore of Lake Michigan was installed, and the work successfully carried on. In 1872, owing to ill health, he sold his business, and for several years was connected with different papers and magazines. Since 1895, he has been chiefly engaged as a stock salesman, and has resided in Hartford, Ct., since 1903.

Mrs. Holley was a very kind, generous and hospitable woman, and a handsome one as well. She was the mother, so to speak, of her neighborhood and the loving friend of all. Her charity and her kindness were on every hand. During her active life she "laid out" the bodies of eighty-seven deceased people of her locality and dressed one hundred and twenty-two babes. What love and sympathy and kindness was that! She was, too, a most patriotic woman. From the time of the erection of the soldiers' monument in Cornwall until near her death, she annually placed a wreath on the top of it on Decoration Day, using a ladder for that purpose. Hers was a most kind, gentle and heroic spirit.

Mr. Sanford was a Lieut. in Co. F. 92d Regt., N. Y. S. V. He first lived on the Benjamin Sanford farm nearly a mile east of his father's place, until 1849, then some seven years on a farm in Lawrence, four miles north of Nicholville on McEwen Street, then on a small farm with hotel a mile east of Nicholville, from which he enlisted and to which he returned after the war. During his last years he resided in Nicholville, but on the Hopkinton side of the river. He was a Justice of the Peace for some years in Hopkinton. Being of a religious turn of mind he preached now and then to fill vacancies, also conducted services at funerals.

Mrs. Brooks was a large woman with a bright, strong face, exceedingly industrious, a cleanly and tasteful housewife, very sociable and bright in conversation, assiduous in attention to all her duties, a great helpmeet to her husband, and withal, a heroic and noble woman.

Mr. Brooks was fully six feet tall, with a strong, intellectual face, good judgment, great good sense, and an astonishing memory. He opened a store at Parishville before his majority and met with success unparalleled in those times. He was a great Whig and ruled his town. In 1858, he moved to Potsdam, where he was a successful merchant for many years. He spent two years in Middlebury College, was Supervisor of Parishville, also of Potsdam, member of Assembly in 1857, a Justice of the Peace noted for tact, good sense and a naturally judicial mind, and Collector of Internal Revenue from 1862 to 1876. He was a man of great strength of purpose, with surprising powers of invective when attacked. Of all his family only his granddaughter, Mrs. Hugh A. Grant, survives.

5063. JONAH<sup>s</sup> SANFORD, JR. (same descent as 5061) b. Oct. 24, 1821, Hopkinton, N. Y.; d. Oct. 18, 1886, Hopkinton, N. Y.; m. Feb. 17, 1847, Clarinda, dau. of Elisha and Amanda (Post) Risdon, b. June 23, 1822; d. Oct. 19, 1893, Hopkinton, N. Y.

Mr. Risdon was a pioneer of Hopkinton, N. Y., in 1804. He was a surveyor and farmer and a most estimable man. He possessed fine literary qualities and besides keeping a full diary, wrote many interesting historical articles of great local value. These, as well as the story of his life, may be found in the Early History of Hopkinton, by the author of this work.

Mr. Sanford had charge of his father's farm until 1849, when he purchased the small farm two miles distant on the Turnpike, now owned by Thomas Conlin. There he and his wife worked arduously, he chopping wood winters and drawing it to Parishville, and she caring for two babes and doing the household duties. In 1853, they moved to the farm next west of Judge Sanford, where they lived to the end. This farm is now held by their son Silas H. Here they toiled as they had toiled before, building stone walls and adding new buildings and lands, making a farm of over four hundred acres. From about 1863 to 1872, in addition to the farm, Mr. Sanford very successfully ran a potato starch factory on the brook just north of Judge Sanford's residence. Of this industry only a great hole in the bank remains.

Mr. Sanford was a justice of the peace in 1853; assistant assessor of internal revenue from 1862 to 1872; supervisor from 1869 to 1873; member of Assembly in 1874 and 1875; supervisor from 1876 to 1885; chairman of the board for the years 1878 and 1879. In the latter year he was presented by the members of the Board with a gold-mounted cane, which he highly prized.

He possessed much physical power and no man ever more enjoyed sports and games of all kinds, and especially feats of skill and strength. Though ill with diabetes for the last seven years of his life, he would wrestle with any man and never, as far as is known, was he thrown. He was keen and bright, keeping all amused and interested with his wit or tricks and games, which he never tired of playing on everyone. In business he was a decided success for, starting with very little, he gained a competence, and had he been placed with greater opportunities, it is probable that his success would have been correspondingly greater. His discernment, estimates of value, and business sagacity, equalled those of the most capable business men the writer has ever known. His judgment in a deal or business venture was almost unerring.

In all his life no man ever had a more faithful, loyal and persistent assistant and helpmeet than he. Always kind and gentle, never complaining, doing her duties as she saw them, with a grace and ease that were surprising, nursing the sick, giving to the poor, consoling the afflicted, loving all, she was herself lovable and beloved by every man, woman or child that came into her sweet and benign presence. Such a spirit, such a woman, was Clarinda Risdon Sanford, and the writer, her son, fears not to say it since the same tribute may still be heard from all who knew her, now living yet, though she has been gone seventeen years. He would say more had she not requested that little be written on her departure, except to give her birth, marriage, death and that she was a daughter of Elisha Risdon. If she now be conscious, and surely she is if any of all the dead are conscious, the writer trusts the little he has written is no infraction of her parting wish. The thought of her makes it impossible to say less.

They had four children, all born in Hopkinton, N. Y.

9805. CARLTON ELISHA<sup>a</sup> (Jonah 5063, Jonah 2173, Benjamin 944, Jonah 397, Joseph 136, Samuel 35, Ephraim 6, Thomas 1) b. Dec. 31, 1847; m. Dec. 21, 1893, Frances Garrow, dau. of George and Adeline (Merritt) Merritt, b. Mar. 12, 1859, N. Y. City; no children.

Mr. Sanford attended district school with other farmer boys, one term at St. Lawrence Academy, Potsdam, N. Y., in the fall of 1864, several terms in Lawrenceville Academy, and two years at Cornell University, 1869 to 1871, receiving an honorable discharge.

While a lad on his father's farm, entirely as an amusement, he, unaided, quite successfully mastered the trade of a cobbler and wallet maker. Any points that troubled him he would get the trick of doing by watching the shoemaker when on a trip to the village. His greatest trouble was with the farm hands trying to sleep while he was tapping boots in the adjoining room. The bench he used was of his own make and is still preserved.

In August, 1871, he entered the law office of Tappan & Erwin, at Potsdam, as a student, where he remained till the fall of 1872, when he entered the Albany Law School, from which he was graduated, and admitted to the bar in June, 1873. On his admission to the bar he again entered the office of Tappan & Erwin as clerk, where he remained till December, 1874, when the law firm of Swift & Sanford was formed, at Potsdam, N. Y. In the summer of 1876 this firm was dissolved, and Mr. Sanford continued to practice alone till the summer of 1888, when the firm of Swift & Sanford was again formed and continued till the summer of 1892, when, owing to his duties as President of the People's Bank, Executor of his father's will, and other trusts, he withdrew from the firm, though continuing the practice of law privately for some ten years.

While practicing, one case came to him which became of national and even international repute. This was the case of Riggs vs. Palmer, reported in 115 N. Y. Reports, 506, where it was laid down for the first time, at least in English Jurisprudence, that the beneficiary named in a will who takes the life of the testator for the purpose of coming into possession of the property cannot take as legatee or even as heir.

For eight years, from 1881 to 1888, Mr. Sanford was Treasurer of the Raquette Valley and St. Regis Valley Agricultural Society, and for the year 1889 served as its President, to which position he was re-elected but declined.

From Nov. 1, 1883, to Nov. 1, 1886, he, with his brother Herbert and Simeon L. Clark, composed the firm of Clark, Sanford & Co., which did a large business in the manufacture of lumber, butter tubs, etc., at Parishville, N. Y.

In 1888, upon the earnest solicitation of several business men, he entered upon the task of organizing and establishing a second bank at Potsdam, which he successfully did—The People's Bank of Potsdam, N. Y., opening its doors for business the 5th day of May, 1889, in the Knowles Block, corner of Elm and Market Streets, with Mr. Sanford its President, to which office he has been unanimously re-elected annually to the present time (1910).

In February, 1898, the Bank purchased the lot and building of the National Bank of Potsdam, to which it soon removed. One of the proudest incidents in his experience arose on the failure of the National Bank of Potsdam, in January, 1897. Immediately on learning of its suspension, and well knowing that there would be something of a run on his own bank, he telegraphed the Farmers' and People's Banks, of Malone, N. Y., and each instantly volunteered ten thousand in currency. The People's Bank now has a capital of $50,000, and surplus and profits of over $95,000.

He takes special pride in the interest he took and labor given to the movement which resulted in putting in a complete sewer and drainage system in Potsdam Village in the year 1886, though he was in no wise officially connected with it. In the spring of that year there was much sickness in the way of fever, some one hundred and seventy cases, with twenty-five deaths, of all which he kept a record and used on all occasions to promote a sentiment for a sewer system, though threatened with indictment if he did not desist. His office was a rendezvous for many of the friends of the movement, and also during the work of putting in the sewer system, at which time the officials needed much moral help and encouragement, so bitter against the project did many of the people become (when the sickness subsided) due to the great expense of the work. Feeling that the officials who stood so loyally by the work should be remembered, he wrote a history of the struggle and a tribute to the Trustees which may be found in his work entitled "Letters, Essays and Biographical Sketches." This system was the salvation of the village. From that day to this it has been one of the most healthful villages in all the state.

For some years he has been and now is one of the Trustees of the Potsdam Public Library and Reading Room. It was his initiative and work that brought into existence, in 1890, the Potsdam Savings, Loan and Building Association, which has proved quite successful. He has been its Attorney from its organization.

He was one of the incorporators and builders of the following business enterprises, to wit: The Raquette River Paper Company in 1892, of which he was Vice President from its organization to the year 1900, when he sold his holdings; The High Falls Sulphite Pulp and Mining Company in 1892 and for a few years its Secretary; The Thatcher Manufacturing Company at Potsdam, and for some years its Vice-President; The Potsdam Clothing and Manufacturing Co.; and The Potsdam Sugar of Milk Company, all of which tends to show his public spirit and desire to build up his locality.

In politics he has always been a Republican, supporting the party freely with his pen and as a speaker in Presidential campaigns, though never "party blind", especially in more recent years. Without ever seeking office he was made Alternate Delegate to the National Republican Convention at Chicago, in 1888, and Delegate to the Republican Convention held at Minneapolis in 1892. At another time he was Delegate to a Judicial Convention, where an alluring temptation failed to undo him, a fact which has since given him conscious pride.

Since attending Cornell University in 1869, he has written a great deal for the village papers on various topics, municipal matters, politics, business affairs, notices on the lives of departed friends, moral questions, etc., the more important of which he published in 1907 in a book entitled, "Letters, Essays and Biographical Sketches."

His father, dying in 1886, made him sole executor of his will and trustee of one share of the estate, which latter trust he still holds. As executor he handled and administered the estate for nearly eight years, and without criticism or complaint.

In 1903 he published a history of Hopkinton, his native town, a work of six hundred pages, with one hundred and forty illustrations. This he did at his desk in the bank with which he was associated, amidst all its duties requiring nearly three years of time. It proved a pecuniary loss, but this he in no wise minds, since he did not expect gain, and since the work has been well received by the people for whom it was intended.

For full five years past he has given his spare time to the preparation of this work, under the same circumstances, and with no greater hope of pecuniary return.

He is an exceedingly genial and companionable man, known by nearly every man, woman and child in his locality and beloved by all. For a term of four years he was Justice of the Peace of his town. Has been quite successful. Holds the old homestead and now owns the Laughlin farm in Hopkinton village. Res., Hopkinton, N. Y.

Mr. Sanford was a large man weighing over two hundred and twenty-five pounds, very powerful, able to lift one thousand pounds in a contest, and a champion wrestler when wrestling was the fashion. In 1860 he built a house (now gone) on a farm on the Turnpike Road, two miles east of Parishville, from which late in the year 1863 he enlisted into Co. L, 7th N. Y. Heavy Artillery and went through the Wilderness Campaign. He was made a Corporal, was taken prisoner before Petersburg, and confined in Andersonville Prison, where he died July 29, 1864. The author well remembers him, big and hearty and strong, bidding his father's family goodbye as he went away to war, little dreaming that he was soon to die, lying on the hot sands of a Southern prison unprotected from the broiling sun, in the wild delirium of fever and far away from home and friends.

5077. JUDGE PATRICK HENRY<sup>s</sup> SANFORD (John 2180, Benjamin 944, Jonah 397, Joseph 136, Samuel 35, Ephraim 6, Thomas 1) b. Nov. 10, 1822, Cornwall, Vt.; d. Oct. 27, 1905, Knoxville, Ill.; m. (1) May 31, 1853, Jane Griffin May, b. in Williston, Vt.; d. in Knoxville, Ill.; m. (2) Oct. 18, 1864, Helen M. Peck, b. Apr. 24, 1835, Norfolk, N. Y. Res., Knoxville, Ill.

Mr. Sanford was large and portly of figure, quiet of manner, well educated and informed, and particularly so in the law, a solid, sound, able and substantial man, and most highly respected and regarded. He was beloved not only by his family, but by all who knew him. The author met him but once and was greatly impressed by his learning, sterling character, breadth of view and sound judgment. As a sound and able man he stood well and to the front among the descendants of Thomas Sanford.

The following is taken from the resolutions adopted by the Knox County Illinois Bar upon the death of Mr. Sanford.

Judge P. H. Sanford was educated at Middlebury College, graduating in 1846. He began the study of law in Burlington, Vt., removing to Knoxville, Ill., in 1852, where he continued his study, being admitted to the State Bar in 1853. He was Master in Chancery for the Circuit Court for Knox County from 1856 to 1865 and County Judge from 1886 to 1893. He continued in the active practice of law until 1903, when he was stricken with the illness that caused his death. During his long and useful life in Knoxville, he held many other positions of honor and trust which evinced the high regard in which his intelligence and integrity were held by the people with whom he lived. He was County Superintendent of Schools in the years between 1856 and 1862, Member of the Illinois House of Representatives in 1871—72 and of the State Senate in 1873—76, serving on the Judiciary Committees in both houses of the State Legislature and as Chairman of that Committee in the Senate. He at different times served as Mayor, alderman and city attorney of Knoxville, and during his entire life he was a member of the Board of Trustees of St. Mary's School. At all times actively devoting his energy, intelligence and integrity to the aid of education and the uplifting of civic affairs, he leaves the record of a well spent life, helpful to the State and to the community in which he lived.

The members of the Knox County Bar Association deem it fitting that a memorial of his life and character be spread upon our records and the records of the Court of Records of this county. As a member of this Association and of the legal profession, he was honored and trusted by all, but more especially by those who were in constant contact with him in the practice of law, either as an advocate or as a presiding judge. Of a kind and noble nature, he was courteous and fair to his opponents, but steadfast to his principles. Faithful in all things to his clients and engaging only in such causes as he believed to be just, he was conscientious, zealous and diligent in their behalf. His sterling integrity and high estimate of the duties of the Judiciary, with his legal ability and mature judgment, caused his judicial acts and decisions as County Judge, to receive the highest respect of all members of the profession. His standard of professional ethics was high. Without malice to individuals, he never represented anything he considered as being against morality, justice or public good.

He had also a strong sense of the obligations of a public trust, and in all the relations of life he fulfilled his duty. Such a life and character is worthy of the highest regard and recommendation, and we ask that it shall so appear on record as a token from, and inspiration and guide to, the members of the legal profession.

He had two children by first and four by second marriage, all born in Knoxville, Ill.

5078. EDGAR<sup>s</sup> SANFORD (same descent as 5077) b. Feb. 20, 1825, Cornwall, Vt.; d. July 17, 1907, Cornwall, Vt.; m. Feb. 24, 1846, Minerva Tilden, b. June 15, 1825, Cornwall, Vt.; d. Nov. 3, 1907, Cornwall, Vt. She was a very gentle, lovable, Christian woman and mother.

Edgar Sanford died at his home (Benjamin Sanford Homestead) Cornwall, Vt., July 17, 1907, at the advanced age of eighty-two past. He was a man of sterling honesty, strong convictions and decided opinions, and adhered to them most loyally and tenaciously. He was genial and pleasant and greatly enjoyed company, and especially his home. He greatly enjoyed discussion and argument and was most tenacious in his loyalty to his convictions. His entire life was devoted to farming and for some years to the breeding and raising of Spanish Merino sheep, of which he was one of the best judges in Addison County. The sheep "fever" began about 1864.

In 1862, Mr. Sanford sold a yearling ram for $2500. There were other cases of sales much above this one. The Merino is still bred and shipped to the Western States, Africa and South America at a good figure though nothing like that obtained from 1860 to 1870.

Mr. Sanford was of a deeply religious nature and took a prominent part in the church and the religious life of the place.

SANFORD CENTENNIAL AUGUST 28, 1884.

Notice of this Centennial is inserted here since its conception was due to him and its success very largely the result of his efforts. The Middlebury Register of Sept. 5, 1884, gave the following account of the Centennial:

The Sanford cousins of the Tribe of Benjamin, 150 in number, gathered at an early hour on Thursday, August 28, at the old homestead, now occupied by Edgar Sanford, to celebrate the 100th anniversary of their ancestor's arrival and settlement in town. At 12 o'clock the records of the family which had been compiled were read by the secretary, Mrs. Chas. H. Lane, tracing them back to 1641. Benjamin Sanford had thirteen children and 260 descendants. After the reading of the record, a picture of the Sanfords and of the tables and grounds, which had been so beautifully trimmed for the occasion with festoons, flags and flowers, was taken by Dean, the artist. At 1.30 o'clock the friends were seated at tables to partake of the repast which had been bountifully furnished by the cousins in the vicinity. The menu consisted of turkeys, chicken pies, pies, puddings and cakes of all description. After dinner Edgar Sanford welcomed the friends in a very happy manner and introduced Capt. Henry T. Sanford, of Albany, N. Y., who spoke at some length of the noble traits of character of his beloved ancestors and gave a loving greeting to Aunt Betsey, (Mrs. Zimri Pond, of Galesburg, Ill.), the only living child of Benjamin Sanford; and Aunt Anna (mother of Edgar Sanford), the only living daughter-in-law, pronouncing them the heroines of the day. He also cited a remarkable fact of history, that his grandfather, Jonah Sanford, Colonel of the 92nd New York Volunteers, his father Henry B., a Lieutenant in the same regiment Co. F, and himself, a Captain of the 16th Regiment, and three brothers, were all in active service in the late Rebellion at the same time. After wishing the "Sanfords" long life and prosperity he closed his remarks and Rev. M. C. Stebbins, pastor of the Congregational Church, was introduced and as he too married a "Sanford" he thought the family a remarkable one, saying that about all that he had of value in this world was his five daughters who sprang from the Sanford family. ,

Calvin Lewis of Boston was called upon and made a few appropriate remarks and sang two songs as only "Calvin" could sing. Henry Lane also made a few remarks on the Sanford-Peck combination, two Sanford boys having married two Peck sisters and raised families. A few remarks were also made by C. D. Lane, after which three cheers were given for the Sanford family and three for Blaine and Logan. The remainder of the day was spent in social intercourse. The North Star Band of Cornwall discoursed their finest music, adding much to the enjoyment of the day. Among the antiquities exhibited was the large arm chair in which Sarah, Benjamin Sanford's wife, rode on her trip to Cornwall from Connecticut in 1784. All pronounced the celebration a complete success.

They had two children, born in Cornwall, Vt.

Mr. Beecher lived for some years on a farm on the road from Hopkinton to Potsdam, about a mile south of Beechertown, his early home, and then moved to the farm next south of that of Jonah Sanford (the only house on that cross road). About 1902, he sold this place and bought a home in Hopkinton Village. He was a good carpenter and did much of that work when farm duties were not pressing. He stood six feet or more, large, heavy man, had a fine pleasant face, very modest and retiring, kind, hospitable, and as upright and honest a man as the author has ever known. He never wronged anyone. In his later years he was quite successful in trapping foxes. He was surely a noble man.

At a Memorial Meeting of the members of the Bar of the City of New York, held Jan. 18, 1882, the Hon. Noah Davis, Presiding

Justice, in the chair, Charles Tracy offered a resolution highly endorsing the ability, learning, integrity and devoted industry of Judge Sanford, and honoring him for true, noble and attractive qualities.

Mr. Sanford's early training was received in the Hopkins Grammar School at New Haven, the oldest Classical school in this country. In due time he entered Yale College, where he took his first degree in 1847, receiving the rare distinction of the Berkeley scholarship. He then took the full course of the Yale Law School and entered the law office of Butler & Evarts in New York City as a student, serving the requisite Clerkship and being admitted to the Bar in 1851. Twenty-four years later he was elected to the Bench.

His preparation for his cases was exhaustive and extended to all the material questions involved, and his published opinions showed how thoroughly he dealt with the subjects brought before him. He was as pure as the spotless ermine of his rank, and never was suspected of obliquity. In private life Judge Sanford was beloved. His was an exemplary character of culture, and his taste and habits were constant in virtue and Christian faith.

They had two children, born in New York City.

Mr. Beach was graduated from Yale in the class of 1877 and 1879 from the Law School, and was admitted to the bar the same year. He had already entered upon his studies in his father's office, where very shortly his abilities obtained for him a partnership. Since the death of his father he has taken a wider practice in general law, and is today recognized by his older brethren as a fit representative of the third of his name in the profession.

From then until 1858 he was engaged chiefly in business with a wholesale drug firm in that city. In August, 1858, he removed to Oakland, Cal., where, until the time of his death, he carried on a retail drug business, accumulating a modest competency. Mr. Sanford was an active member of the First Congregational Church of Oakland, from the time of its organization, and for many years one of its trustees and deacons. Mr. Sanford was educated in a Military School in Middletown, Ct., and in Andover and Bradford Academies. He was denied a college education owing to the death of his father when he was but seventeen years of age, necessitating his attention to the large cotton thread mills which his father, a man of great mechanical genius, had built up and put into very successful operation. As a young man, and especially in his more mature years, he was physically a grand specimen of manhood, possessing great muscular strength and endurance and excelling in athletic sports. Added to these qualities of body he possessed a spirit and a will force quite imperial in the face of difficulties. In all matters of business he was most self-reliant, strong in his convictions, inflexible in his determinations, and courageous in the execution of his projects. With such physical and mental endowments, success was certain in whatever he undertook and it did attend him in nearly every effort.

After a successful career at Medway he sold out and established himself in Boston for the sale of Southern produce. After a little he operated a mill in Canton, Mass., for the manufacture of a strong cotton fabric much in use on Southern plantations, in which he met with great success. Ten years later he purchased a small mill for cotton weaving, at Southboro, Mass., which he greatly enlarged. The village that sprang up about this mill he named Cordaville, in honor of his wife. In this venture he was again very successful up to the opening of the Civil War, which shut down his mills for a time. During this period, with characteristic generosity, he supported the families of his operatives. With his great foresight and business sagacity he soon had his mills adapted to making woolen blankets, which he sold to the government in great quantities for army use during the Civil War.

On the close of the war, having amassed a great fortune, he sold out his business and gave the remainder of his life to diversion, the care of his fortune, and particularly the breeding and training of fine horses. He had stock farms in New Jersey and Kentucky, but they failed to pay as his mills had done. Nothing daunted, he pursued the vocation as an amusement until near the end. His love for a fine horse—a fast one—amounted to a passion. His connection with the turf dates from the opening of Jerome Park in 1866. He was the first man to join L. W. Jerome in the formation of the American Jockey Club. His most famous horses were, Loadstone, LaPolka, Niagara, Madame Dudley, Preakness, etc., which made his name famous in the racing world.

His residence for many years was in New York City, and he had also a summer residence in Newport, R. I., but he never forgot or neglected his native village, constantly contributing to its beauty and welfare.

With this strength of character and royal nature he was a most tender, generous, loving, chivalrous and ideal father, husband, brother and friend, loved and respected by all who knew him.

The author gathered the foregoing from an editorial in the Spirit of the Times of Aug. 11, 1883, and from the sermon preached at his obsequies by Rev. R. K. Harlow and printed in pamphlet form.

He had one child by first marriage.

Mr. Sanford received his education in the district school, Pierce's Academy at Middlebury, Mass., and Day's Academy in Wrentham, Mass., afterwards going for health to New Orleans, and finally to Vicksburg, Miss., where he went into business, losing all in the financial crisis of 1837. In September, 1842, he went to New York City with only fifty dollars, to seek employment.

May 4, 1840, Alvin Adams had started what he called the Express of Adams & Co., between New York and Boston. The Company was at this time (1842) a small affair and struggling hard to make a living. Its only competitor was the Harnden Express, the pioneer in the business, started by William F. Harnden in February, 1839. Applying to Mr. Dinsmore, who was in charge of the New York office of Adams & Co., Mr. Sanford was able to get employment only on commission on any new business he might bring the company. Shortly he "took a mile," as it was called, that is, a section of the city in which to collect and distribute all the parcels that a good muscular Christian could carry. In this work, by great industry and faithful attention to patrons, he extended and increased the Company's business. Showing himself to be a man of fine executive ability, he was soon put in charge of the Company's business in Philadelphia, which he greatly increased, extending it to Baltimore, Pittsburg, etc. Early in his service he became one of the co-partners in the Company. Owing to his fine business qualities he steadily rose in position and influence, until, at the time of his death, he was vice-president of the Company, a position which he had held for some years. It can be truly said that he was one of the few builders of the Adams Express Co. of today.

Mr. Sanford was also as closely associated with another enterprise of as great magnitude and importance as that of the express business, to wit, the American Telegraph Co., which he assisted in organizing. Four years after the formation of the Company he was elected its President, an office which he filled with great efficiency up to the time the Company was merged into the Western Union. Not long after he became President, the War of the Rebellion broke out. He was soon made Military Supervisor of Telegraphs with the rank of Colonel in the regular army. This position he held throughout the war. He was, in fact, a military censor of all despatches. This work brought him into the most intimate and confidential relations with President Lincoln and Secretary Stanton, whose high esteem and friendship he held until their deaths. At the close of the war, in consideration of his services to his country, he was brevetted a Brigadier General of Volunteers. After this to the time of his death he was called General Sanford.

On his death the resolutions passed by the bodies and organizations with which he had been associated, together with the sermon of Dr. R. S. Storrs and other papers, were published in a small volume, from which the author of this work has drawn his sketch. He was a most genial, capable and lovable man.

Y., and at St. Lawrence University, from which he graduated as Bachellor of Science in 1882. He received the degree of Master of Science in 1892 and that of Master of Arts in 1900. He went to New York the summer of his graduation and became editor of the Daily Hotel Reporter. One year later he joined the city staff of the Brooklyn Daily Times and early in 1884 became its dramatic editor.

In the autumn of 1884 he founded The Bacheller Newspaper Syndicate and was its editor and manager until 1897. During that period he had business relations with every distinguished author in Great Britain and America. Rudyard Kipling, R. D. Blackmore, A. Conan Doyle, Anthony Hope, Stanley Weyman, Gilbert Parker, W. W. Jacobs, Mary Wilkins, Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, Sarah Orne Jewett, Robert Louis Stevenson, and Joseph Conrad were among Mr. Bacheller's contributors. In 1898, he joined the editorial staff of the New York World, and on a leave of absence for four months in 1900 wrote Eben Holden. The book was an immediate success, its editions reaching a total of 265,000 in the year of its publication. It has since become one of the most popular books in the language. All the great critics sounded its praise. It is probable that at least five million people have read the book. Since its publication Mr. Bacheller has given his time exclusively to novel writing. D'ri and I, a tale of our second war with the British, was published in 1901; The Story of a Passion, in 1902; Darrel of the Blessed Isles, in 1903; Vergilius, in 1904; Silas Strong, in 1906; Eben Holden's Last Day a-Fishing, in 1907; The Hand-Made Gentleman and the Master, in 1909. He is a member of the New England Society of New York, of the Players, Authors and National Arts Clubs, of the Kane Lodge of Free Masons, and of the Alpha Tau Omega fraternity. His home, Thrushwood, on the sound shore at Riverside, Ct., is one of the most beautiful country places near New York.

6714. REV. ARTHUR BENTON<sup>9</sup> SANFORD (Francis 2956, Hawley 1210, Aaron 494, Hezekiah 165, Lemuel 59, Ezekiel 9, Ezekiel 2, Thomas 1) b. in Redding, Ct.; m. June 10, 1886, Nellie May, dau. of the Rev. Sandford Hunt, D. D., Book Agent of the Methodist Episcopal Church in New York City.

This clergyman was born in Redding, Ct., and is the oldest son of the late Hon. Francis Asbury and Lucy (Knapp) Sanford. Having taken his preparatory studies at the Redding Institute and Amenia Seminary and in New York City, he was graduated from Wesleyan University, Middletown, Ct., with the Class of 1872. The following year he united with the New York East Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and has since been continuously a member of that body. After serving churches in Connecticut, Brooklyn, and New York City, he became in 1890 the Assistant Editor of the Methodist Review, the theological bimonthly of the Church. In this capacity he served for eleven years, having been in 1892-3 the Acting Editor of the publication. He was also the Editor of the Methodist Year Book and of the General Minutes of the Church for 1890-1901; was an Assistant Editor of the Daily Advocate at the General Conferences of the Church for 1888, 1892; and was the Editor of the Proceedings of the Second Ecumenical Conference, held at Washington, D. C., 1891.

In 1900, Dr. Sanford was a delegate to the Ecumenical Missionary Conference, held in New York City; in 1901 he was a member of the Third Ecumenical Methodist Conference, held in City Road Chapel, (John Wesley's Church,) London, England; in 1904, he was a delegate to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Los Angeles, Cal.

In 1904-5, he was President of the New York Preachers' Meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He is a Manager of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States; is a Trustee of Syracuse University; is a Trustee and Vice President of the Trust Fund Society of John Street Church, New York City; is a Vice President of the Methodist Historical Society in the City of New York; and is President of the Deaconess Board of the New York East Conference. Since 1897 he has been Secretary of the New York East Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, a body of over 300 ministers.

He is a member of the Phi Nu Theta and Phi Beta Kappa Societies, and in 1893 received the degree of Doctor Divinitatis from Syracuse University.

He was one of the three founders of the Sanford Association of America, is Editor of the two pamphlets issued describing the first three Reunions of the organization in 1907-9, and is now President of the Association. At present he is pastor of the Van Alst Avenue Church, Long Island City, N. Y.

That Dr. Sanford has great ability as a statistician and a veritable "genius for accuracy" is readily indicated by the calls that have continually been made upon him from all sides for secretarial work; that he has acquired an unusually flowing, yet trenchant, style of expression is shown in the multitude of topics which he has treated. Highly favored by nature in presence and in voice, he has become a speaker of rare grace and power. An appreciative lover of the best in literature, he has also developed a discriminating and critical power in the field of letters which all may envy, though few possess.

REV. ELIAS B. SANFORD
No. 8379

He was graduated from Wesleyan University in 1865, studied at Yale Divinity School in 1868 and traveled in Europe in 1869. From 1869 to 1895, he was pastor of Congregational Churches in Cornwall, Thomaston and West Brook, Ct., being in Westbrook, his birth place, from 1882, to 1895. During the entire years of his pastoral service, he was engaged in editorial and literary work. He is the author of "History of Connecticut" (1887), that has passed through several editions, the latest of which was a revised edition published in 1906. His "Concise Cyclopedia of Religious Knowledge, Biblical, Biographical, Theological, Historical and Practical," published in 1890, has passed through a number of editions.

In 1895, he accepted the position of Secretary of the "Open Church League," and since that time has been in New York City.

For more than thirty years he has been connected with movements designed to bring about a closer relation of the Protestant branches of the churches of Christ in our country. Through his efforts "The National Federation of Churches" was organized in 1900. This Federation brought about the great meeting of the "Inter-Church Conference on Federation," held in New York City, November, 1905. He is the Corresponding Secretary of the Committee having in charge the work of this Council that met in 1908.

Dr. Sanford received the honorary degree of A. M. from Yale University in 1888 and of Doctor of Divinity from his Alma Mater in 1894. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, a life member of the Genealogical and Biographical Society of New York, and a member of various historical societies. He was one of the Founders of the Sanford Association. Res., New York City.

Dr. Sanford was a graduate of Wesleyan University in 1865; studied in College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York, 1865-66;

1867 studied in Paris and Vienna; 1868 was graduated from Medical Department of University of New York. From 1869 until his death he was a practicing physician in Brooklyn.

The following tribute to his life and work is taken from the Wesleyan University Alumni Records:

"In 1869, Dr. Sanford commenced his practice in Brooklyn. His merits both by nature and acquirement were so conspicuous that he was sought out from the first, and almost immediately entered upon an active practice. His skill and genius came rapidly into large requisition and developed as rapidly as required. In the fall of 1880, the Long Island College Hospital induced him to prepare a course of lectures on Medical Jurisprudence. He had delivered six of these lectures and was preparing others. Mr. Sanford came into this world rich with gifts from God and every year brought them to light more clearly. He had a manliness instinct with self-respect, yet robed in modesty. He seemed absolutely fearless, yet quick to see the first approach of danger to others and to ward it off. The only fear he ever showed in his dangerous vocation was that his faithfulness and attention might be attributed to selfish motives. Selfishness and meanness he abhorred. He was in full sympathy with the inquisitive and philanthropic spirit of our age, and had large faith in the capacity of mankind to grow to knowledge, wisdom and virtue. He loved his fellows and conscientiously worked for their welfare. He had that wholesome influence which only the intelligent and pure in heart can exercise.

On the first of December he was called to perform the operation of laryngotomy upon a child in the last stages of laryngeal diphtheria and contracted that fatal disease. He was not the attending physician but was called in in the emergency on account of his eminent surgical skill. Eleven days subsequently, he died. The child recovered, the doctor died, the martyr spirit beautifully shining forth in death. He saved others, himself he could not save."

They had one child.

May 30, 1881, Rockaway Beach, L. I.; m. Mar. 31, 1853, James A. Maxwell, b. Dec. 28, 1812, Guilford, Ct. Mrs. Maxwell was born in Pennsylvania, where, until the coming of her grandfather, it had been a primeval wilderness. A large part of her childhood days were passed out of doors in close touch with the birds and wild animals, so that the study of them, which in later years became almost an absorbing passion, dated from her earliest recollections.

It was not until after her marriage that the idea of making practical use of her knowledge came to her, and she at once took up taxidermy. She obtained specimens of nearly all the birds and animals of the Rocky Mountains, and was one of, if not the pioneer, naturalists to mount them in positions true to nature, surrounding them with their own peculiar environments.

In 1876, Colorado, having just been admitted to the Union, wanted one of her collections to exhibit at the Centennial to be held in Philadelphia, Pa., and it proved to be one of the most novel and interesting attractions of our first great international expositions.

Mrs. Maxwell made friends with the leading naturalists of the time and considered it one of the crowning honors of her life that she discovered a new specimen of owl named, in consideration of the fact, "Scops Maxwelliae" by the Smithsonian Institute.

9816. ROLLIN J.<sup>9</sup> SANFORD (Rollin 5068, Jonah 2178, Benjamin 944, Jonah 397, Joseph 136, Samuel 35, Ephraim 6, Thomas 1) b. July 29, 1864, Hopkinton, N. Y.; m. Aug. 28, 1884, Marium L., dau. of Calvin Miller, b. May 29, 1865, Stockholm, N. Y. She is a dutiful, loving wife and mother, a good house-keeper and most efficient help-meet.

Mr. Sanford was born, as the author has it, on the same day his father died in Andersonville Prison. Left an orphan, he had to fight his own way practically unaided. In his struggles he has so well acquitted himself that he owns a good farm in Stockholm, N. Y., and a fine home in Potsdam, N. Y. He was in the employ of the Vermont Farm Machine Co., of Bellows Falls, Vt., for some years as sales agent, and by reason of his success, received a handsome salary. In size he excels his father, weighing two hundred and forty pounds, standing about five feet ten in height, and possessing great strength and endurance. His success is a credit to him and he is entitled to it. In 1907 he opened a fine boot and shoe store in Potsdam, N. Y., which he is very successfully conducting. He is one of the three members of Board of Water Commissioners of the village, and has given and is giving much time to his duties as such, bringing the Water Department into a very efficient condition. He is a descendant on his mother's side as well (see 958).

Mr. Sanford prepared for college at Gen. Russell Military School, New Haven, and entered Yale from there. While at college he acted as drill master for first volunteers sent from New Haven. At the outbreak of the Civil War he left college in the Sophomore year to enter the regular army, having been appointed second lieutenant of the First Dragoons, April 26, 1861. He was sent immediately to Missouri, where he fought through the Wilson Creek campaign under Gen. Nathaniel Lyon. In 1862, he was in the army of the Potomac, and in Peninsular and Antietam campaigns, the troop under his command opening the battle of Antietam. Later he was attached to the staff of Gen. Merritt, in command of the First Division U. S. Cavalry, holding that position during 1863 and early part of 1864. In the spring of 1864, he was in the battles of Cold Harbor, the Wilderness and James River campaign. Subsequently he was appointed on Gen. Torbet's staff, commanding Grant's cavalry corps. At the time of Sheridan's famous ride Col. Sanford was the first one to meet him and direct him to the firing line. At the close of the war he rejoined his regiment, then acting as escort to Gen. Phil Sheridan at New Orleans.

He went to California with his regiment and from there to Ft. McDowell in Arizona, where for the next five years he was engaged in active service against the Apaches and in explorations in the then unknown country north of the Gila River. When Arizona was organized into a territory he was strongly urged to become its Governor, but declined, preferring to remain in the army. In 1871 he was granted a long leave of absence, which he spent in European travel. On returning he joined his regiment in Idaho, where he fought against the Indians and made valuable explorations in Idaho, Washington, Oregon and Alaska. Later he was engaged in the Nez Perces, Bannock and Apache campaigns and was in the Sioux campaign in 1876, when Custer was massacred. In 1884, he was ordered to the Military School of Applied Science at Ft. Leavenworth, and to Washington, D. C., as a member of the board to devise a new system of military tactics, which system is still in use. He was appointed Captain in 1862, brevet major in 1864 for gallant conduct at Cedar Creek and brevet lieutenant colonel in 1865 for gallant and meritorious conduct during the war; was made lieutenant colonel in 1889 and colonel of Sixth Cavalry in 1892, in which year he retired. He was president of the Society of the Cincinnati for Connecticut, member of the Loyal Legion, Sons of the Revolution and of the Colonial Wars, and of the Society of War of 1812. He was a member of the University Club, New York; the Metropolitan Club, Washington; the Graduates' Club, New Haven, and of other American and foreign clubs. He was a vestryman of St. Michael's Episcopal Church, Litchfield.

Military Records

SANFORDS IN THE WAR OF THE REVOLUTION.

The following Sanfords, descendants of Thomas Sanford, took part in the Revolution, as shown by Connecticut Men in the Revolution, arranged in alphabetical order as to their given names, to wit,-

	Page.		Page.
Aaron Sanford,	196	Jesse Sanford,	216
Archibald Sanford,	252	Jonathan Sanford,	251
Benoni S. Sanford,	186	Joel Sanford,	165
Caleb Sanford,	226	Jonah Sanford,	177
David Sanford,	148	Joseph Sanford,	178
Daniel Sanford,	147	Joseph Sanford,	256
Ebenezer Sanford,	155	Liffe Sanford,	190
Elihu Sanford,	263	Moses Sanford,	128
Elihu Sanford,	180	Oliver Sanford,	183
Eliada Sanford,	172	Oliver Sanford,	153
Ezekiel Sanford,	145	Seth Sanford,	147
Ezekiel Sanford,	167	Solomon Sanford,	173
Ezra Sanford,	150	Strong Sanford,	264
Henry Sanford,	251	William Sanford,	171
Jairus Sanford,	245	Zacheus Sanford,	125

There were other Sanfords, descendants of Thomas, who took part in the Revolution of whom I have learned from their descendants, and in various other ways, to wit,-

Amos Sanford,	165	Hezekiah Sanford,	143
Augustus Sanford,	155	James Sanford,	210
David Sanford,	156	Jonah Sanford,	166
Rev. David Sanford,	182	Jonathan Sanford,	175
David Sanford,	269	John Sanford,	157
Elias Sanford,	204	Joseph Sanford,	181
Eli Sanford,	203	Nehemiah Sanford,	190
Ephraim Sanford,	157	Philo Sanford,	269
Ezra Sanford,	158

Of those in the Revolution of Sanford blood, the following have been observed, but it can hardly be that they constitute all of them:

Aaron Morehouse,	192	Daniel Jackson, Jr.,	209
Eliphas Alvord,	185	Jonas Platt,	209

There were also quite a number of husbands of Sanford daughters who took part in the Revolution as will be noted in scanning the work. The following have been observed, to wit,-

Aaron Barlow	190	Ethan Smith,	271
Charles McDonald,	187	Joel Merchant,	557
Edward Gay,	192	Nathan Stoddard,	184
Ebenezer Hotchkiss,	254	Soloman Chittenden,	267

It is quite possible that there were a few other Sanford soldiers by name or blood who served in the Revolution that have not been "picked out" of the work, by reason of oversight or a failure to learn of and record their war service. It is quite possible also that there are a few mistakes in those that are here given. There is a record of a Jonah Sanford who served and the descendants of two Jonahs claim this as their own.

It is, indeed, a difficult task to learn with certainty, who served in the Revolution. Aside from Connecticut Men in the Revolution the author is not cognizant of any other record or work of any note or moment on the subject, and that work is sadly deficient. Then, too, it gives no particulars by which to identify the Sanford who did service except the name. The Connecticut Historical Society has lately added two volumes to the work which proves how deficient it was.

SANFORDS IN THE WAR OF 1812.

To learn who were Sanford soldiers in the War of 1812 is even more difficult to ascertain than who served in the Revolution. The records in the various states are deficient and those in Washington quite inaccessible. The author has learned of the following men who served in that war from their descendants. It is altogether likely that there were several others perhaps many others, who took part in that struggle.

SANFORDS IN THE CIVIL WAR.

The three following lists of soldiers who served in that war are descendants of Thomas Sanford and selected from his genealogy. They of course enlisted from many states. Their service was learned from the soldiers themselves or their descendants. That it does not include all who served, the author is very well aware. The blame for its failure to give all rests with their descendants in their neglect to inform the author. On page 1319 will be found the Sanford soldiers from the State of New York. Those who served of whom the author has learned, are, to wit,-

CIVIL WAR 1861-5

SANFORDS IN, FROM NEW YORK STATE.

The records in the Adjutant General's office of the city of Albany, New York, show that the following Sanfords by name served and took part in that struggle. The author does not vouch for its accuracy, since he found some errors in names that he happened to know, nor as to its completeness. It is not only plain, but self-evident that they are not all descendants of Thomas Sanford, but the author does believe that they are practically all descendants of Thomas, Robert of Hartford, Ct., Andrew, Zachary, and John Sanford. A few possibly may have been descendants of Robert of Swanzea, Mass. The work is now too far progressed for him to pick out and note their ancestors. This work he must leave to each inquirer.

Old Records and Census of 1790

VERY OLD ORIGINAL PAPERS

The author of this work in his researches secured a bundle of very old, original papers of great interest and historical value. They are ninety-two in number. By their aid several knotty and perplexing questions, otherwise impossible of solution, have been solved absolutely.

They are also of great interest since they give the autograph signatures of many men of those early days. The following is a list of most of the papers. The names of the parties to the instrument are first given, followed by the date, the officer taking the acknowledgment and the witness. These signatures are, of course, all original, the same as the parties to the instrument.

Nearly all the papers are deeds, and when not a deed, the name is given. The parties nearly all resided in Milford. Where they resided elsewhere the residence is given. The papers are given in their order as to date.

These old papers will be filed and deposited with the Connecticut Historical Society at Hartford, Ct., where they can be well preserved, and where many people can see and get the autograph signature of their early ancestor

Appendix

Other Pioneer Sanfords

The author and compiler of the Thomas Sanford genealogy had not gone so very far in his researching for data as to Thomas's descendants when he often became quite a little annoyed, perplexed and even confused by finding Sanfords of the right name, but with wrong birth or death dates to fit into the families of Thomas Sanford's descendants. He had not learned and did not know down to this time that there was any other early Pioneer Sanford to this country than Thomas Sanford whose descendants he was trying to work out, but he soon learned that there were at least six other Pioneer Sanfords who came to this country about the same time as did Thomas (1632-4) and remained here, rearing families. He could have got along with all this without much trouble but for the fact that Thomas, Robert, Andrew and Zachary finally settled in Connecticut, not far removed from each other, and gave practically half their children the same names. This fact caused him (the author) quite a little annoyance, so much that he found his easiest solution of the trouble was to work out and make out the families of the other Pioneers for a few generations. In several instances, as will be noticed, where Sanfords evinced and took an interest in the matter, he has brought the lines (generations) down to date. (For a fuller statement of the author's troubles, see article, "Thomas Sanford in America," page 60.)

Having got the data together as to these other Pioneer Sanfords he not only felt but believed that it would not only be a kindly act, but a worthy and noble one as well, to preserve it. Many Sanfords throughout the country have no idea from which of the Pioneer Sanfords they descend, while others, the author has found, are entirely wrong as to their ancestor. With the Sanford data in this work put before them, nearly every Sanford in this country ought, with possibly a little outside study in some cases, to find his ancestor and fill in the intervening gaps.

The families and descendants of Robert and Andrew Sanford can with much right and great propriety appear in this volume, since they are shown and found to have been brothers of Thomas Sanford. The full and elaborate history of the ancestry of Thomas Sanford in England given by Mr. C. A. Hoppin in the opening of this work is, of course, of equal worth and interest to the descendants of Robert and Andrew Sanford. The author is also convinced that Zachary Sanford was very close in relationship to Thomas, Robert and Andrew Sanford, since he evidently came to this country with the last two, first settled with them in the same town, Hartford, Ct., named most of his children the same as they, and certainly came from Braintree, England, or some place near it, which was only a few miles distant from the boyhood home of Thomas, Robert and Andrew. It should also be ever borne in mind that the English ancestry of Thomas, Robert and Andrew Sanford was found solely and wholly by a court record as to Zachary Sanford at Hartford, Ct. (See p. 65 for the record.) But for this record, in all human probability, the ancestry of Thomas, Robert and Andrew would never have been learned. Therefore their descendant, one and all, may well be grateful to the memory of Zachary Sanford and claim him as one of the family, or very nearly so.

The foregoing gives the reasons for the insertion in this work of the following genealogical tables and sketches of the other Pioneer Sanfords to America from about 1632 to 1640.

ROBERT SANFORD (PIONEER)

The following genealogies are put up in the same form and after the same plan as is the genealogy of Thomas Sanford. (See "Key to Work," page 86) and Descendants of the Four Sons pg. 8. None of these short genealogies are indexed. Since no one of them is lengthy the reader can readily go over them. To have several indices in the work would surely be confusing.

1. ROBERT SANFORD (Ezechiell, Thomas, Richard) bap. Nov. 1, 1615, Stanstead Mountfitchet, Essex Co., Eng.; d. June, 1676, Hartford, Ct.; m. 1643, Ann, d. 1682, Hartford, Ct. He was a brother of Thomas Sanford, the Pioneer to this country. (Savage states that this Ann was a daughter of Jeremy Adams, which statement was no doubt based on the statement in Adam's will, calling Zachary Sanford his grandson. Recent research by A. D. Hodges, Jr., of Boston, a most painstaking and able genealogist, convinces him that Ann was not a daughter of Mr. Adams. He finds the Zachary Sanford married Sarah Willett, granddaughter of Jeremy Adams, which would account for his calling him grandson in his will. Jeremy Adams married Silence, widow of Samuel Greenhill, about 1636. There is no record or evidence of a previous marriage. Mr. Adams mentions Zachary only in his will, when there were in 1682 at least seven living children of Robert and Ann. (See Hartford Deeds, dist. 399. Zachary Sanford on May 30, 1682, petitions on the part of his wife for his share of the Greenhill property.)

Hinman in his work says that Robert was in Hartford as early as 1640. William S. Porter in his Conn. Hist. Notices 1842, p. 40, says that Robert was living on lots 61 and 62, Burr St. in 1655. Savage has him in Hartford in 1645 and the Town Records give the birth of his daughter Elizabeth as Feb. 19, 1645. Mr. Sanford's will was proven Sept. 7, 1676. Mrs. Ann Sanford's will was proven Sept. 7, 1682, and mentions children Zachary, Robert, Ezekiel, Hannah and Abigail, and speaks of Robert, Hannah and Abigail for "their loving care" of her.

Had eight children, order as given in Pro. Rec.

- 2.+Zachariah<sup>2</sup>. d. 1714; m. Sarah Willett.
3. Elizabeth, b. Feb. 19, 1645; d. Feb. 6. 1695; m Joseph Collier. Her will was probated Mar. 5, 1695.
- 4.+Ezekiel, b. Mar. 13. 1647; d. 1716.
5. Mary, b. 1650; d. 1727; m. 1671-2, John Camp of Hartford. Her will probated June 6. 1727.
6. Sarah. b. 1652; named in her father's will but not in her mother's.
- 7.+Robert, b. 1655-6; d. 1728. ag. 72.
8. Hannah, named in her father's and mother's will.
9. Abigail, named in her father's will and in her mother's as unm.

2. ZACHARIAH<sup>2</sup> SANFORD (Robert 1) d. 1714; m. Sarah, dau. of Nathaniel Willett. He was an innkeeper and became a Sergeant in 1676: Ensign in 1689. and Lieutenant in 1697. Made

Freeman May 21, 1668. His will is dated Mar. 2, 1710-11, proved 1714. (Probate Book 8, p. 262.)

He then only had two children living, viz.: Sarah and Abigail. His children were, viz.:—

10. Sarah<sup>3</sup>. b. Nov. 15, 1681; d. Jan. 26, 1761; m. Dec. 16, 1700, Jonathan Bunce.
11. Zachary, b. Apr. 21, 1686; d. before his father.
12. Ann, b. Aug. 27, 1689; d. Oct. 18, 1710; m. Apr. 27, 1708, Joseph Bunce.
13. Rebecca, b. Aug. 27, 1689; d. before her father.
14. Abigail, b. Oct. 11, 1692.

Hartford Records. Thus it seems the name was not continued by this family.

4. EZEKIEL<sup>2</sup> SANDFORD (same descent as 2) b. Mar. 13, 1647; d. 1716, Southampton, L. I.; m. Hannah (Mitchell). There are no traces of him to be found in Hartford. He is not named in his father's will of 1676, but is in his mother's of 1682. He is named in the distribution of his father's estate in Dec., 1676 (A. D. Hodges, Jr.). An Ezekiel appeared in Southampton, L. I., about 1670. His will is dated Dec. 9, 1715, proved Mar. 30, 1716, mentions wife Hannah, sons Ezekiel, Thomas and Zachary.

I am morally certain that this Ezekiel was the son of Robert of Hartford. He left that city early, as there is no record of him there. I know of no other Ezekiel that could be the Ezekiel of Southampton. He was a manufacturer by trade, of cart wheels. The people of Southampton gave him fifteen acres of land on the north side of Bridge Lane at Mecox on condition that he remain there and practice his trade, which he did. This was in 1678. The first bridge across Sag Pond was built by him about 1696 and from it that locality became known as Bridgehampton.

In the U. S. Census of 1790 there were twenty Sandford families put down for Southampton, L. I., and all spelled the name Sandford.

"See Early History of Southampton, L. I., by Geo. R. Howell, M. A., p. 371." Also Sag Harbor Express, of L. I. for May 21, 1908. Abstract of N. Y. Wills, Vol. 2, p. 172.

- 17.+Zachary.

Some records give two other sons, viz: Jonah and John. See Doc. History of N. Y., p. 666.

7. ROBERT<sup>2</sup> SANFORD (same descent as 2) b. 1656; d. 1728, ag. 72, according to gravestone in ancient burying ground, Hartford, Ct.; m. Mary, dau. of Daniel Pratt (probably).

His will is dated May 25, 1726, proved July 6, 1728, mentions children Thomas and Hannah Pratt.

56. NATHAN<sup>5</sup> SANFORD (Thomas 27, Thomas 16, Ezekiel 4, Robert 1) b. Nov. 5, 1777; d. Oct. 17, 1838, at Flushing, L. I.; m. (1) Eliza Van Horn; m. (2) Mary E. Isaacs of New Haven, Ct.; m. (3) Mary Buchanan of Baltimore, Md.

His father dying when he was young, he was reared by his mother's people. He attended school at Clinton Academy in East Hampton. He entered Yale College in 1793, where he remained two years. In 1799, he was admitted to the bar in N. Y. C. Early in his career he dropped the first "d" in the name of Sandford "to save time," as he put it. In 1800, he was appointed a commissioner in bankruptcy. In 1803, he became U. S. Attorney for the southern district of New York, which position he held for twelve years performing the varied and multiplied duties in an able and most satisfactory manner. In 1811, was elected to the Assembly and chosen Speaker and was the last to preside in a cocked hat. For the years 1812-13 and 14 he held the position of State Senator. In the year 1815, he was elected U. S. Senator and served six years. In 1821, he was chosen a member of the Constitutional Convention. In 1823, he was appointed Chancellor of the State to succeed the eminent jurist, James Kent, and held it till 1825, when he was again elected U. S. Senator. Mr. Sanford was one of the most intelligent, if not the most capable, in the entire Sanford family in America. He certainly attained the highest political distinction of any.

He built in 1835 an elaborate and costly structure at Flushing, L. I., known as Sanford Hall, which was purchased in 1844 by Allan and James Macdonald and by them converted into a sanitarium and as such is still used. A monument stands to his memory in the Episcopal churchyard at Flushing.

An excellent article on Nathan Sanford, prepared by Wm. S. Pelletreau, Esq., of New York City, appeared in the Sag Harbor Express (L. I.) of May 21, 1908, though I much fear he is in error as to Robert Sanford's English parentage. (See pedigree of Hugh Sandford recorded in Herald's College, London.)

The Early History of Southampton, L. I., describes the Arms which one of Ezekiel's descendants (probably Nathan) believed belonged to his family, to wit:

"Quarterly 1st and 4th per chevron, sable and ermine, in chief two boar's heads couped close or, 2nd and 3rd per fesse indented azure and ermine. Crest, a falcon, wings endorsed preying on a partridge, ppr. Motto, Nec temere, nec timide."

43. THOMAS<sup>4</sup> SANFORD (Thomas, Robert, Robert) bap. Apr. 13, 1736, Hartford, Ct.

The author of this work has no positive proof that the above Thomas was the Thomas Sanford who went to Weybridge, Vt., and settled there about 1775. He is, however, quite well convinced that he is the Thomas who lived in Weybridge some thirty years or so, for the following reasons, to wit:

The Thomas born in Hartford left there for parts unknown. No record of him can be found in or about Hartford. Many people from Connecticut were moving north into Vermont at this time. His age, thirty-nine years in 1775, would be about right for a Pioneer there. Then again, Laura E. Sanford of Charles City, Ind., a descendant, states that there is a tradition in the family that the Pioneer ancestor's name was Robert and that his cousin Robert came to this country with him. This fits the facts well. There was a Robert in Boston who went to Swanzey, Mass., and also this Robert in Hartford. Each had eight children and four in each family bore the same names. For these reasons I think the Thomas of Hartford and Weybridge the same person.

When he went to Weybridge he already had three and possibly four children. His son Ira was the first child born in Weybridge. On going there he built a cabin and went to work clearing land as did other settlers.

On November 8, 1778, a squad of British soldiers with some Indian allies rushed into Weybridge, burning cabins, killing stock, etc., taking defenceless farmers prisoners and leaving the mothers and younger children without shelter or food. Among the prisoners were Thomas Sanford and his oldest son Robert. They with the others were taken to Quebec and put in prison. Mrs. Sanford with three or four other women and their young children, in great terror, found a shelter in an open cellar, which they managed to cover over, where they hid and lived for some days, when some American scouts found them and took them to Pittsford, Vt. The father, Thomas, in the following year managed to escape from prison and wending his way through the forests of Maine, etc, reached Vermont, and gathering his family together again went back onto his farm at Weybridge. According to some records, Robert, the son, being young, was released after being taken some miles from home. According to others he was taken to Quebec and released with the others in 1782.

In the U. S. Census of 1790 both Thomas and Robert are given as heads of families. Land was conveyed in Addison (close by Weybridge) to Robert and one Henry Sanford, Apr. 21, 1788. They sold the land June 16, 1792. This Henry was living in Weybridge in 1799. Who was he? Brother of Robert perhaps?

In 1856, Ira Sanford, son of Thomas, with other descendants of the prisoners captured in Weybridge in 1778, erected a substantial marble monument at the cellar where the women and children hid, which is inscribed on its four sides as follows:

North side, "Nov. 8, 1778, a party of British Tories and Indians destroyed their houses and effects and carried Thomas Sanford and son Robert; D. Stowe and son Clark; C. Brittell and son Claudius and J. Sturdevant, prisoners to Quebec."

East side, "Their wives and children after occupying a cellar at this place ten days were taken to Pittsford by our troops. D. Stowe died in Prison Dec. 31, 1778. T. Sanford escaped. The others were discharged in 1782."

West Side. "Erected in 1856 by David, Milo, Jason and Miller Stowe; John and Orange Britell; Ira Sanford and others."

South side, "Weybridge was chartered by N. H. in 1761 and settled in 1775 by T. Sanford, D. Stowe, J. Sturtevant, and Claudius Britell."

The author has a picture of the monument, which is of good size and has an iron fence about it. The money to build it was sent to Samuel Wright of Weybridge, as his grandson, Hon. H. O. Wales of Weybridge, informs me. And what is the most singular of all is, that no account of its erection got into the Middlebury papers (only seven miles distant) nor can any track of Ira Sanford or the others who helped erect it, be learned after the most persistent efforts. Such, indeed, is historic fame, and, really, what is it all worth? Beyond grandchildren, and with most of them even, all is lost. (See History of Pittsford, Vt., for a full account of the capture in 1778.)

A little later he built a frame house on the Turnpike about one and a half miles east of Parishville village. Jonah Sanford, Jr., bought this place and moved onto it in 1849, where he lived until the fall of 1853. The place is now owned by Thomas Conlin.

ANDREW SANFORD (PIONEER)

The following tables are built on the same plan as the Thomas Sanford Genealogy (See "Descendants of the Four Sons," pg. 8, and "Key to Work," pg. 86. They have no index.

1. THOMAS<sup>1</sup> SANFORD (Ezechiell, Thomas, Richard) bapt. Nov. 1, 1617, Stanstead Mountfitchet, Essex Co., Eng. (See "Medieval Origins of the Sandfords" pg. 13.), d. 1684, Milford, Ct.; m. (1) Mary ———, d. 1662; m. (2) Sarah, dau. of Wm. Gibbard of New Haven, Ct. Her mother was a daughter of Edmund Tapp of Milford, and sister to the wife of Gov. Robert Treat.

The first record of him is in Hartford in 1651. His residence was on what is now lot 74 on Burr St. On May 21, 1657, he was made Freeman and was Chimney Viewer in June, 1662. It is very likely that he was in Hartford and married as early as 1638 and the first two children born soon thereafter. The records state that Mary, his second child, was of marriageable age in 1667.

He and wife certainly got into serious trouble in Hartford. They were both indicted for witchcraft or for holding public meetings other than those prescribed by the elders or for dealings with "Sathan". The records show that he was "accused" June 6, 1662, and very soon after tried in court by a jury; that the verdict of the jury was, "some thought guilty, some strongly suspected," result, a disagreement.

It further appears that the wife Mary was indicted June 13, 1662, and soon tried, whether with her husband has not been learned. The verdict in her case, it is certain, was "Guilty," which of course, meant execution. The actual record of the execution has not been found, but it is morally certain that she was executed. John M. Taylor in his "Witchcraft Delusion in Colonial Connecticut" states that she was executed. In the preparation of that work, as he states, in a letter to Mr. F. A. Sanford, No. 303 in this family, of Nov. 14, 1910, (to whom the author is indebted for assistance in this matter), he (Taylor) had access to the notes of the late Dr. Charles J. Hoadley who made an exhaustive research some years since on the subject of witchcraft. His vol. of memoranda is now held by Mr. George E. Hoadley of New Haven. For trial of Mrs. Sanford see pg. 151. Andrew's trial will be found in the same volume. See also records of "Particular Court" vol. 2, pg. 174-5, on file in office of Secretary of State and State Librarian, Hartford, Ct.

The fact, too, that Mr. Sanford not long after these trials, married again goes to show that his first wife had died.

A recent article (1910) in the New England Historical Magazine refers to the Sanfords of Hartford, Ct., as being "All Quakers." In and under Hartford Colonial law Quakers were classed as and with heretics. Quite a good many Quakers and Heretics were executed in New England in Colonial times. So we need not look upon the case of Mary Sanford as a strange one.

On going to Milford in 1667 he and his second wife accepted the situation and joined the Church, Mar. 4, 1671. Mr. Sanford left a will dated Sept. 6, 1684. The inventory of his estate is dated Oct. 16, 1684. The will mentions eldest son Andrew, son Ezekiel, eldest daughter Mary, daughter Hannah, and "the three younger ones." "If any of these die their portions to go to the remaining daughters. (New Haven Pro. Rec. Book 1, p. 130.

Had nine or ten children.

- 2.+Andrew<sup>2</sup>, b. Hartford; d. 1692.
3. Mary, b. Hartford; d. 1689, Milford, Ct.; unm.; joined the church May 4, 1671, at Milford. The inventory of her estate was taken April 12, 1689.
4. Hannah, b. Feb. 19, 1669; bap. June 4, 1671; m. Daniel Tuttle. (See Tuttle Book Page 71.)
5. Ezekiel, bap. June 4, 1671; d. 1685-6; m. Elizabeth ———. (She married (2) Jan. 11, 1686, Zachariah Baldwin.) He left a widow. (Savage's Work.) Inv. of his estate taken Jan. 14, 1685. Estate was taken by his widow and brother Andrew, showing that he left no child.
6. Martha, bap. June 4, 1671.
7. Elizabeth, bap. June 4, 1671; d. unm. before her father. Not mentioned in his will.
8. Abigail, bap. June 4, 1671.

10. Samuel, b. Jan. 27, 1674; d. Feb. 17, 1674.
11. Sarah, b. Apr. 7, 1677; m. Apr. 10, 1703, Joseph Beard. The records as to the family vary. The names Ezekiel, Hannah, Martha and Elizabeth are given in same order as they appear in Milford Church Records. Savage, Vol. 4, pg. 13, does not give the names of Nathaniel or Samuel and states that Ezekiel died in 1685, leaving a widow and possibly one child. Ezekiel made deed to his brother Andrew, Apr. 13, 1685.

2. ANDREW<sup>2</sup> SANFORD (Andrew 1) b. Hartford, Ct.: d. 1705, Milford, Ct.; m. Jan. 8, 1667, Mary, dau. of Henry and Elizabeth Botsford, by Mr. Fenn, magistrate. She was born May 21, 1643. This would indicate that Andrew was born about 1640. He joined Milford Church June 27, 1669 and became a freeman the same year. The inventory of his estate is dated Dec. 10, 1705. His son Andrew was named administrator (New Haven Pro., Book 3, p. 75). In 1707, the administrator deeded land in Milford to Hannah Tuttle, which he states had been the property of "our" father (Milford Land Rec.; Tuttle Genealogy).

Had ten children, bap. in Milford.

12. Mary<sup>3</sup>, b. Aug. 1668; d. soon.
13. Hannah, b. Feb. 19, 1670; m. 1692, Thos. (Daniel) Tuttle.
14. Samuel, b. Mar. 17, 1671; d. Mar. 16, 1697-8, unm.
- 15.+Andrew, b. July 13, 1673.
16. Elizabeth, b. Mar. 5, 1675; buried July 30, 1675.
17. Esther, b. May 6, 1677.

19. Ezekiel, b. July 11, 1683.

19a. Abigail, bap. June 9, 1689.

19b. Ann, bap. April 26, 1691.

Of several records secured no two fully agree as to dates, and some do not give all of the eight children above. Several give two Samuels, the first of which died soon.

15. CAPT. ANDREW<sup>3</sup> SANFORD (Andrew 2, Andrew 1) b. July 13, 1673; d. Apr. 23, 1747; m. (1) Nov., 1695, Hannah, dau. of John and Hannah (Clark) Platt of Norwalk, Ct.; b. Dec. 15, 1674; d.———. She was dismissed from Church there to join church with her husband in Milford Dec. 11, 1699; m. (2) Elizabeth———. Admitted to full communion on July 5, 1730. He is known in church records as Capt. Andrew. In Oct. 1726, he was made captain of the first Train band in Milford and in 1728 made Deputy to General Court and many times afterwards. His will is dated Apr. 26, 1747, probated July 6, 1747. It gives his widow Elizabeth and daughter Mary Clark each £200; gives oldest son Samuel his silver handled sword besides oyster lands, etc.; gives his son Andrew cane with silver head and land in Milford, Wallingford, and Turkey Hill; give John land in Wallingford, lodge and land in Milford, half his home and barn and land at Gulf Mill. He left a large estate for those times. The will names Samuel, Andrew and John executors. Those mentioned in will, it is thought were the only children then living. The certificate of Capt. Samuel's service from the office of the Adjutant General's Office, Hartford, abbreviated, is as follows:

He enlisted as sergeant July 10, 1775, in Capt. Peter Perritt's company in Col. Charles Webb's 7th Continental Regt., discharged Dec. 10, 1775. The Regiment was reorganized for the year 1776 with Samuel as 2nd Lieutenant. The Regiment was in the vicinity of New York City from April till the close of the year, took part in the battle of White Plains, Oct. 28, 1776, battle of Trenton, Dec. 25, 1776, and at Princeton, Jan. 3, 1777.

He was commissioned First Lieut. Jan. 1, 1777, in the 8th Reg. Conn. line, Col. John Chandler, and commissioned Capt. Dec. 15, 1777. The Reg. went into camp in the spring of 1777 at Peekskill, N. Y., fought at Germantown, Pa., Oct. 4, 1777, under Gen. MacDougal. Part of the Regiment took part in defence of Fort Mifflin, Pa., Nov. 12-15, 1777, Monmouth, June 28, 1778, and Stony Point, July 15, 1779.

Capt. Sanford continued in commission with his command in the 5th Reg. Conn. Line, Col. Isaac Sherman, and retired by the consolidation on Jan. 1, 1783. ("Record of Conn. Men in the War of the Revolution.")

R. Albert J. Sanford, Esq., of Stamford, Vt., has the sword carried by Capt. Samuel during the war, and money could not buy it. He describes it thus:

"The sword is type of dress sword used in early times. It has a three-cornered blade made to thrust instead of cut and has solid silver mountings or handle." It was presented to him by his father Justin O. Sanford, who got it from his father William, who was a son of Capt. Samuel. It is morally certain that it is the same sword given by Capt Andrew by will to his son Samuel, father of Capt. Samuel. ### ZACHARY SANFORD (PIONEER)

Probably a close relative of Thomas the Pioneer.

The following tables are put up after the plan of the Thomas Sanford work. (See "Key to Work", page 86.) There is no index to these tables.

1. ZACHARY SANFORD, d. Dec. 23, 1668, in Saybrooke, Ct.; m. Hannah, dau. of John Rockwell of Windsor, Ct., d. Jan. 15, 1665. I find no record of him in Hartford, but he is ever spoken of as having been first in that place. I believe he first settled in Hartford since his wife lived near that place and for the further reason that I believe that Andrew, Robert and Nathaniel Sanford who settled in Hartford were his brothers. He was made a Freeman in 1658 and elected a Representative in 1657-8.

At the time of his death he was in debt to Miles Clay of Braintree, Eng. After Clay's death John Durrant and John Lomy (Loomis) (on the part of his wife) took out letters of administration on Clay's estate in County Court at Hartford, Ct., so as to enable them to collect the claim against Zachary's estate. The records at Hartford and Saybrooke show nothing further. He went to Saybrooke in 1615. This Court record at Hartford (see page 65) was and is the only clue which the author of this work has found as to whence in England the Pioneer Thomas of Milford, Robert, Andrew and Zachary of Hartford came, and by which the parentage was eventually found of Thomas, Robert and Andrew Sanford. (See article by C. A. Hoppin in front part of book.)

JOHN SANFORD (PIONEER)

The following tables are built up after the plan stated in "Key to Work," page 86. Since several indices in the work would be confusing, they have not been indexed.

1. JOHN<sup>1</sup> SANFORD (SAMPFORD), son of Samuel and Eleanor Sampford of Alford, Lincolnshire, Eng., d. 1653, Portsmouth, R. I.; m. (1) Elizabeth Weed, sister of Henry, a rich Boston merchant; m. (2) Bridget, dau. of William and Ann Hutchinson, bap. Jan. 15, 1618-9, Alford, Eng.; d. 1698, at Boston. She was whipped twice in August, 1677, for attending Quaker meetings.

Mr. Sanford was surely an intimate acquaintance of John Winthrop and his son John in England. He certainly came over with John Winthrop, Sr., in the spring of 1630 or with John Winthrop, Jr., in the ship Lyon, arriving in Boston, Nov. 3, 1631, but probably with the son John. On Mar. 2, 1629-30, Gov. Winthrop wrote to his wife, "Our two boys and James Downing (nephew of Gov. Winthrop) John Samford and Mary Ann and most of my servants are gone this day toward Southampton." Query: Did not Mr. Samford come in the Arbella or, at least in the fleet? (Winthrop's Journal, Ed. 1833, Vol 1, Appendix.)

On Jan. 9, 1631-2, Henry Jacie in England wrote to Mr. Samford asking as to the winds either on the trip over or in New England. If he meant the former, Mr. Samford must have come in Nov., 1631, and if the latter, then he probably came in the spring of 1630. (See 3 Mass. Hist. Coll. I, 235; also 4 Mass. H. C. VI, 476, 479, 481.)

From July 30, 1630, to Oct. 10, 1632, 151 members had joined the First Church of Boston. Mr. Sampford's name is the 115th on the list. Mr. Sampford was admitted freeman Apr. 3, 1632. Between 1633 and 1637 he was often elected on committee to allot lands. (Drake's Hist. of Boston.)

On May 14, 1634, he was appointed to examine as to the condition of the ordinance and on Sept. 3, chosen cannoneer of the port of Boston, and again on Oct. 28, 1636. On Nov. 27, 1637, Mr. Sanfoard with fifty-eight others were disarmed by order of the court, after the trial of Anne Hutchinson, who, with John Wheelwright, a classmate of Oliver Cromwell, were leading the people into dangerous errors through the Antimonian controversy. He and fourteen others out of the fifty-eight fled to Portsmouth, R. I. There he was appointed June 27, 1638, to repair highways, constable in 1640, made Freeman Mar. 16, 1641, Lieutenant in 1644, and in 1653 became President of Portsmouth and Newport.

He was a most capable business man, as is fully shown by his will dated June 22, 1653, and proved the same year. The inventory showed 824 lls. 1d. Among the items are two negroes and a negro boy, 62, 10s. The estate was well distributed among his widow and children. Mr. A. D. Hodges, Jr., of Boston, is convinced that there were two John Samfords in Portsmouth 1653-55 and later. His widow Dec., 1655, the third wife of Major Wm. Phillips of Boston. Her will is dated Sept. 29, 1696, and proved Aug. 18, 1698. She made bequests to the children and grandchildren.

RICHARD SANFORD (PIONEER)

For plan of tables see "Key to Work," page 86. These descendants are not indexed.

1. RICHARD SANFORD, b. 1594, England; d. Swansea, Mass.; m. Margery ———, d. 1640, in Boston.

It is evident that his wife and some of his children came with him to Boston. Savage, in his great work, states that he was a laborer, meaning that he had no trade. He was admitted an inhabitant of Boston and asked for a lot Dec. 22, 1640. (Boston Rec. Com. Report, Vol. 2, part 1, p. 59.) He owned a house and lot (Ibid. part 2, p. 13). He was 56 years old as shown by his oath Jan. 6, 1650 (Ibid. Vol. 32, p. 374). On Jan. 30, 1641, was admitted to the First Church and on June 2, 1641, made a freeman. He had a son Robert (see Suffolk County Deeds, Book XI, page 22), also a son John (see probate of his will Apr. 24, 1677), also a son Thomas (see Deeds, Book XI, pp. 18 and 52), also a daughter Mary, who married Aug. 25, 1656, Edward Turner. I am quite disposed to think he had a son James, who died in 1661. He and his son Robert sold their property and removed to Swanzev, Mass., in 1678.

Had at least four children.

2.+Robert<sup>2</sup>, d. Swanzev, Mass.

3. John, b. 1626; d. Feb. 10, 1677; m. Feb. 19, 1657, Sarah, widow of Robert Potter of Warwick, R. I. John was apprenticed by his father Richard, Feb. 14, 1641, to Joseph Armitage, a tailor of Boston, for six years. In a deposition made in 1856 he stated his age as thirty years. He became a noted schoolmaster and scrivener. Was admitted to First Church Boston, April 22, 1655. He was admitted Freeman Oct. 11, 1670. His will was proved April 24, 1677, and named no children. He made bequests to children of his brother Robert and to children of his sister, Mrs. Edward Turner of Middletown, Ct., and to the "Old South Church" of which he was one of the founders. His widow Sarah's will probated May 4, 1686, gave her property to the same children as did her husband. Mr. Sanford was a man of high Christian character. (See Judge Sewall's Diary, date Jan., 1766-7)

4. Mary, d. Middletown, Ct.; m. Aug. 25, 1656, Edward Turner in Boston. He was in Milford, Ct., in 1651, where Thomas Sanford was living. In 1665, he was in Middletown, Ct., where he died, April 4, 1717. They had children as is shown by her brother John Sanford's will.

5. Thomas, d. 1682-3; m. Elizabeth, dau. of Nathaniel and Mary Williams of Boston, Mass., b. Oct. 18, 1640. He took deed from his father Richard of land on Court St., June 5, 1678. For a time he was a merchant. As he was about to journey at sea he made his will on Sept. 10, 1681. It was probated Aug. 7, 1683. It gave all his property to his wife Elizabeth. He left no issue. (Mrs. Sanford married second John Clark. Left a will; probated April 7, 1692.)

2. ROBERT<sup>2</sup> SANFORD (Richard 1) d. Swanzev, Mass.; m. 1652, Elizabeth Skelton, dau. of Rev. Samuel Skelton, of Salem, Mass. Was admitted to Boston Church July 27, 1651. According to Savage he was made a freeman May 26, 1652. He was a surveyor of highways in Boston in 1658, 1669 and 1676. In 1672, he was agent for Rev. James Allen of Boston in the sale of a farm in Salem, Mass. In 1678, he and his wife Elizabeth and his father Richard conveyed the balance of their property on Court St., Boston, to Richard's son Thomas and removed to Swanzey, Mass. He was a planter in Swanzey, which is shown by a suit in Superior Court, where he is spoken of as of Boston and Swanzey.

Had eight children, born in Boston.

7. Elizabeth, b. Dec. 5, 1655.

- 13.+ Thomas, b. Apr. 27, 1673.

13. THOMAS<sup>3</sup> SANFORD (Robert 2, Richard 1) b. Apr. 27, 1673, Boston, Mass.; m. (1) Christian ———; m. (2) Tabitha ———. Mr. Sanford must have been a bright, popular young man since he was elected fence viewer at Swansea Mar. 28, 1693, when only twenty years of age, and to other town offices for several years afterwards. Was for eight years Town Clerk between 1715-1737; Town Treasurer, 1716-1717; Leather Sealer, 1720; Representative, 1721-22; an Arbitrator, Feb. 14, 1744. In about 1700, he went to Mendon, Mass., where he can be traced from 1710 to 1745 by Suffolk deeds and Mendon Town Rec. He was elected Selectman for eleven years from 1711.

Had five children by first marriage.

WILLIAM SANDIFORD (PIONEER)

This family is not indexed.

1. WILLIAM SANDIFORD, b. 1587-8, Bristol, Eng.; d. Dec. 30, 1668, Barbadoes, W. I., ag. 80. (Monumental Inscription of the British W. I., by Capt. J. H. Lawrence Archer, 1875, p. 401.) On Apr. 11, 1641, Mr. Sanford was made Assistant Justice; July 26, one of the Council of Gov. Hawley. In 1638, he with Thomas Sandiford was in list of owners of more than ten acres. (See First Settlement of Island of Barbadoes; also Gen. Reg. XXXIX, 132.)

Had three children.

2.+William<sup>2</sup>, d. Jan., 1690-1, New Barbadoes, N. J.

3. Robert.

4. Henry, b. 1651-2, Barbadoes; d. Sept. 7, 1685, ag. 33; m. Elizabeth _____, b. 1658; d. 1740, ag. 82.

2. CAPT. WILLIAM<sup>2</sup> SANDIFORD (William 1) d. Jan., 1690-1, New Barbadoes, N. J.; m. (2) Mar. 22, 1667, Sarah Whartman of Swrinam, N. J.; d. 1719. His will is dated Jan. 2, 1690, inventory taken Mar. 23. His will was proven June 23, 1719. Mr. Sandiford came from Barbadoes in 1668 to New Barbadoes Neck, between the Passaic and Hackensack Rivers, N. J., where he received a patent from Gov. Cartarett of 10,000 acres of meadows and 5,308 acres of upland. On July 30, Capt. Sandiford purchased the Indian title to these lands. His uncle Nathaniel Kingsland of Barbadoes took an interest in these lands. In July, 1673, the Dutch captured this part of New Jersey and allowed Mr. Sandiford to hold his lands. In Feb., 1674, the English re-acquired by treaty the lands that were captured in 1673. Capt. Sandiford served in the Council in 1682 and also as Major in the Council under Gov. Thomas Rudyard. On July 15, 1675, he was Com. Capt. of the Newark Co. and on Mar. 13, 1675, Feb. 16, 1676, Aug. 30, 1677, Sept. 12, 1679, President of the County Court of Elizabethtown and Newark. On Apr. 24, 1677, he transferred the most of these lands to Mrs. Sarah Whartman in trust for the use of his children. On Aug. 10, 1678, Mrs. Whartman transferred the lands back to Mr. Sandiford, she having by her own head and obstinate will violated the conditions of the conveyance to her. On June 14, 1662. Mr. Sandiford made an assignment of a slave to his daughter Nedemiah, who was to marry Richard Berry.

Letters were issued on his estate Sept. 1, 1692. In his will he states that Sarah Whartman is his wife and his wish is to be buried on his own plantation, without mourning, pomp of expensive ceremonies, and implored several high officials to assist his poor ignorant widow and five innocent children. The inventory of his estate showed 493- 15s. 3d. including four slaves on his plantation at New Barbadoes, N. J. Her estate inventories 483- 16s. 2d. Her will names all the children except Peregrine and also the three sons of her son William, viz.: William, Michael and Peregrine.

Had six children.

5. Nedemiah<sup>3</sup>, b. 1660-4; m. (1) June, 1682, Richard Berry; m. (2) Thomas Davies.
6. Katharine, b. 1668; m. Dr. Johannis van Imburgh.
- 7.+ William, b. 1671; m. Mary Berry.
8. Peregrine, b. 1673; d. young. Not named in mother's will.
9. Grace, b. 1676; m. Barne Cosens.
10. Elizabeth, b. 1679; m. James Davies.

7. WILLIAM<sup>3</sup> (William 2, William 1) b. 1671; m. Mary Berry.

Three children.

11. William<sup>4</sup>.
12. Michael.
13. Peregrine.

NATHANIEL SANFORD (PIONEER)

NATHANIEL SANFORD, d. 1687, Hartford; m. Susannah ———. She and dau. Mary were baptized in Second Church of Hartford, June 11, 1671, and she was admitted to full communion June 17, 1671. Mr. Sanford was received July 28, 1679. On Nathaniel's death, widow m. John Buttolph of Wethersfield. Mr. Sanford was elected Chimney Viewer on north side in Hartford Feb. 16, 1656. He must have been 21 years of age and some time in the town. He may have been a relative of Thomas, Andrew, Robert and Zachary. June 16, 1687, inventory of his estate was taken and it was divided between widow and Mrs. Wilson by Court order Oct. 14, 1687. (Hartford Notes, Book 1, p. 89).

Had one child.

Mary, m. Phineas Wilson, a merchant in Hartford.

JAMES SANFORD, d. Nov. 2, 1661, in Boston; m. 1656, Elizabeth, dau. of Francis Smith, the cardmaker of Roxbury and then Boston. I somehow "suspect" he was a son of Richard. On James' death the widow married George Hainborne, who in 1663 was sued by Paul Wilson, he claiming that the widow was his espoused wife.

CAPT. HENRY SANDIFORD, b. 1651-2; d. Sept. 7, 1685; m. Nov. 23, 1674, Mary Long. He was assessed five shillings in Charlestown, Mass, in 1674, and residence given as a "lodger at Watkins." He was Master of the ship "Three Brothers" plying to and from Barbadoes in 1688. As he was a "lodger" and spelled his name so differently leads me to believe that he was not a son of Richard and belonged to another "tribe," quite likely of Barbadoes.

ROBERT SANFORD, d. Sept., 1672. He was a merchant in Barbadoes and was accidentally drowned in New York Harbor. His uncle, William Sanford, took out letters on his estate Oct. 9, 1672. The uncle was probably the William of New Jersey. (See Surrogate's Office, N. Y. C., Liber 1, p. 150.)

VINCENT SANFORD was Clerk of Lancaster County, Va., in 1652, showing plainly that a Pioneer Sanford or Sanfords had settled there and probably prior to this time. The name often appears in the records of Lancaster, Northumberland, Richmond, and Westmoreland Counties, and among the best families. Jeremiah Sanford, b. 1738, in Loudon County, buried in ———, was in the War of the Revolution; John W. A. Sanford, now living in Montgomery, Ala., was a Colonel in the Confederate Army. There are a great many Sanfords in the Southern States, nearly all of whom sprung from the Virginia Pioneers.

The foregoing are all the Sanfords which may be called Pioneers that I have been able to learn of after a considerable search in vital, town and other records in the libraries of Boston, Salem, Hartford, New Haven, etc. I find that no Sanford or Samford settled in Ipswich, Newton, Roxbury, Watertown, Saugus (now Lynn) or Salem, Mass., prior to 1650, as Mr. Sidney Perly, the noted Antiquarian, informs me upon a search of the printed Vital Records. Nor is the name to be found in "Ancient Landmarks of Plymouth" nor in "Burial Hill Epitaphs" of Plymouth. Nor is it to be found in the printed Vital Records prior to 1650 of Charlestown, Dedham, Hingham, Concord, Braintree, Haverhill, Boston, Dorchester, Cambridge, Sudbury, Wenham, as James A. Kibbee, Esq., Genealogist of Warehouse Point, Ct., informed me, except as stated in this article.

ADDENDUM

When Mr. C. A. Hoppin made his search in Hatfield Broad Oak, Stanstead Mountfitchet, and other places in Essex and Hertfordshire, England, for the lineage of Thomas and other Sanfords, emigrants to America, he was then unable to find any note or record of Ezechiell Sanford, father of Thomas, Robert and Andrew Sanford, emigrants to this country, after the birth of his last child, Jonathan, in 1624. As there was no record of him at the two places just stated, subsequent to 1624, he surmised that possibly Ezechiell might have emigrated with one of his sons. The author of this work also surmised that possibly he married widow Francis Smith and came to this country, dying very soon after his arrival. (See pg. 70.)

Mr. Hoppin on his return to England has discovered, but after this work was in type, that Ezechiell Sanford in or just prior to 1635, moved from Stanstead Mountfitchet to Margaretting, Essex County, some ten miles from Hatfield Broad Oak, and fifteen miles from Stanstead Mountfitchet. He was a resident of Margaretting in 1635, since his name appears in a subsidy (tax, ship money). From this it is apparent that he did not emigrate to America, at least with his sons, and surely that he did not marry widow Francis Smith. Further research will be made at Margaretting.

Index

EXPLANATION.—The index gives the names of all the descendants of Thomas Sanford, and also the names of men and maiden names of women who married such descendants, every such man or woman taking the same number as the descendant he or she married.

The number following a descendant's name is that party's number on birth, and if he or she married and had a family, this number will appear further on in the work (consecutive order) in large, black figures, where his or her family is given.

If a descendant did not marry or did marry, without issue, then he or she can only be found in the small figures on birth.

The name following in parenthesis is the surname of the husband or wife of that person, and is given only as to descendants.
